October 2021 Newsletter

President's Message

Well, mornings are getting a little cooler. Fall is my favorite season, time to slow things down after a hectic summer and cozy up under our favorite quilts! I hope that you all will be able to spend time with family and friends and get in some quilting time also.

As long as weather permits, Quilt Meetings will continue to be held outdoors at the Senior Center. Next meeting is Sunday, October 10, 2021. If you were not at the last meeting, Nancy K. says she still has some blockette kits to hand out. Nancy has provided fabric so you will need a kit. Call Nancy to pick one up.

There are a lot of activities being planned for the next few months. Don't forget that Brown Bag items are due early this year in December. See you soon!

Paula

Grace V. & Marcia W.

Marcia delivered quilts to the infusion department and there has been a change we should note. They no longer wash the quilts. They obtained a blanket warmer in the unit. They continue to give the quilts to the patients who are very grateful, (and the staff love them) and the patients can bring their own quilts back when they have their treatments. Of course, we can continue to use panels and whole pieces of fabric, but it does not limit us if we want to do smaller pieces or pieced quilts.

We had a wonderful BBQ at Ginny & Joe's home on Sunday 9/26/21. There were 28 individuals in attendance and a wonderful time was had by all. The weather was great, the company was wonderful, and the food was fantastic. For everyone who missed it this year, you may want to consider attending next year.

The next event we have planned is the Retreat!!! It will be October 28, 29, & 30th this year at a new location: Jug Handle Creek Farm. The times for the retreat are as follows: 10/28 9:30am to 4:00pm, 10/29 9:30am to 4:00pm and 10/30 9:30am to 3:00pm, please note on the last day we will end a little early for clean-up. If you have not already signed up to attend please do so at the October meeting. Space is limited and we need to assure we have a head count for each day. On 10/28 lunch will be BYO, On 10/29 we will have sandwiches delivered (so be sure to place your order with Nancy K.), On 10/30 we will have a potluck, be sure to let us know what you will be bring when you sign up. We are excited to get together to sew and have fellowship with our fellow OWQs. Please consider joining the fun!

On October 31, we have our first class of the year: Marjan Kluepfel will be presenting her Dyeing Class. This class will be held outside and should be fun to learn to dye your own fabric for use in your quilts. The cost of the class is only $35.00. There is still room for more attendees, so remember to sign up at the October meeting. If you will not be attending the October OWQ meeting but would like to sign up for the class, contact Carole P directly. As always your place in the class is not assured until your payment is made. So, sign up and join us for a fun afternoon of learning to dye your own fabric!!!!That's it for now,

Ginny C.- BBQ

The BBQ at Ginny's place was a really fun party. About 25 people came, including some new members. Of course, the food was marvelous, hamburgers, hot dogs, all the fixin's, corn on the cob, salads and desserts. The fire pit was roaring and kept us warm, even though the weather could not have been better. A number of people played "Corn Hole" and there was a challenging game of "Right, Left, Center" with fat quarters. Matt P. won and Paula couldn't convince him to make a quilt, so he talked us all into playing a second game, which he promptly won again. This time he was seriously trying to give away the fat quarters. Connie M. happily took the one with eggs on it. But there weren't many other takers, so he talked us into a third game. This one came down to a roll off between, who else, Matt P. and Carole P. Much to Paula's relief Carole won. Everybody had a great time and we'll plan to do this again next year.

I just wanted to let everyone know how much I appreciated the cute Get-Well card the group sent. All the lovely messages made me smile. Thank you so much. I would like to share this really cute picture my husband sent me that made me feel better.

9. Your cat will arrive fully assembled, but may need time to expand after unboxing.
